THE MINES OF UTAH.

The mining interests of Utah are advancing with astonishing rapidity. The most every day coming from the East and West, for Stockton, Faber, and the other mining districts. The large companies have just been formed in New York and have machinery en route for this Territory, which is to be used in working some of the Stockton ledges. A large number of other companies have been formed in the East, who have invested largely in the Stockton mines, and will in all probability send out machinery this season.

The Cottonwood, Bingham Canyon and Deep Creek mines are also being developed with the most favorable prospects. Our mines are capable of being worked to better advantage than any other in the Territory. In a few weeks we shall know just what the mines are worth, but if earlier rock is very indication, they are among the richest silver mines ever discovered.

The Cottonwood, Bingham Canyon and Deep Creek mines are also being developed with the most favorable prospects. Our mines are capable of being worked to better advantage than any other in the Territory. In a few weeks we shall know just what the mines are worth, but if earlier rock is very indication, they are among the richest silver mines ever discovered.

With all these advantages in our favor, we believe that Utah is to-day the best mining section in the country. New mines are being discovered daily. Last week some good leads were found twenty or thirty miles north of this city, and we have been shown some really fine specimens that were taken from ledges not three miles from our office.

From California.

San Francisco, June 20. Black and Taylor, with over three hundred of their pugilistic friends, left the city to-day for some point on the San Jose Railroad, to have a will for $500. No attempt was made by the authorities to stop the party.

Margaret McCabe has been committed to the Stockton Asylum for insane. Judge Drinnell has granted Margaret Lucas a divorce from her husband, Daniel Lucas, on the ground of desertion.

The Veteran Corps will be escorted by the National Guards on the Fourth of July, and will carry among other battle flags, that under which Colonel Baker was killed at Bull's Bluff, which has been tendered by the Pioneers for the occasion.

MARKETS.—Provisions.—Sales of 20,000 pounds of California smoked hams and bacon, private, and 700 cases California lard, private; quotable at 15 1/2.

Wheat.—The market is dull and depressed; the range for ordinary to prime is $1.55 to 1.65; sales include 500 sacks good milling at $1.62 1/2, and 620 sacks good shipping for export at $1.65 per 100 pounds, free on board.

Stocks.—The sales at the evening Board were: Omaha $2.85; Belcher $1.50; Alpha, $2.05; Yellow Jacket, $2.20; Confidence, $2.20; Imperial, $2.20; Chollar, $1.85; Bullion, $50 a 10; legal tenders, 60 1/2.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Masonic Festival Monday evening was a splendid success in every respect. Independence Hall looked perfectly gorgeous in the taste and elegant decorations provided by the young ladies of the city. The tables presented a fine appearance, and were loaded down with the most delicious ice cream, strawberries, cake, etc.

Some of the large cakes exhibited most taste and ingenuity in their construction, and were among the finest we have ever seen. The ladies who had charge of the matter are entitled to a great deal of credit for their taste and industry in arranging and carrying out the whole affair. Upward of one hundred couples were in attendance, and dancing was kept up until among the small hours, when everybody went home delighted with the evening's entertainment.

Some little excitement was occasioned during the evening by one of the chief attractions—the Post-office—being destroyed by fire. No insurance. Postal connections, we are informed, will not be resumed on this route.

THE FOURTH.—The Committee of Arrangements, appointed by the Y. M. C. Association to provide for a celebration on the coming Fourth, have decided on a picnic at Cottonwood, nine miles from this city. The Committee are hard at work perfecting the arrangements, and if the weather is favorable we may calculate on a pleasant time. We understand that there will be no literary exercises, unless "Judge" Clinton consents to favor the party with the reading of the constitution of the Billiard Club.

At the last lottery ball given in Paris, one of the most notorious of them were a gold necklace, composed of medallions, each one of which represented a different cost of arms, none belonging to any noble or lower rank than Mirabeau. So the Indians wear their victims' skulls.

MARRIED.—In this city, on the 2nd by Judge McCarty, Joseph Zugmiller to Miss Barbara Brubaker.

California Items.

The Dutch Flat Excursion of June 16th, says that the new town of Alta, situated at the contemplated railroad depot, about one and a half miles above that place, is the present scene of great bustle and building activity. There are now thirty or forty buildings in course of construction, and the building of the contemplated extension of the railroad to that point is in progress.

Severely a day passes that some case of highway robbery does not occur in the mining districts. G. W. Hopkins, of Sacramento, while traveling in El Dorado county, a few days since, was robbed of eleven dollars and fifty cents.

The work of harvesting has already commenced in some portions of Butte county. It is estimated that much of the labor will be performed by the header. There is a scarcity of help in the harvest fields, everybody appearing to be engaged in the prosecution of business.

Rare pears are selling in the streets of Downsville, Cal.

As up country exchange says that the grass widows in that vicinity are playing the very devil with green blades.

The graders of the Stockton and Copperopolis Road are progressing at the rate of six hundred feet a day.

The great Overland Railroad will go through Humboldt Pass, following the river on that route. It will pass within two hundred miles of Astoria.

Lusk & Co. have recently discovered a quartz lead that will average $1.00 a ton, on the north fork of Humboldt Creek, Siskiyou county, Cal.

A correspondent says that Yreka presents the same death-like appearance that is characteristic of nearly all the mountain towns of California at the present day.

General Sweeney.

The Albany correspondent of the New York Tribune gives the following biography of General Sweeney, commander-in-chief of the Fenian forces:

Gen. Sweeney is in every sense of the word a true Irish gentleman. He was born at Dunnamway, in the county of Cork, Ireland, in 1822. His father, William Sweeney, died in 1827, leaving a widow with several children, of whom Thomas was the youngest. The widow and children emigrated to the United States, and at an early age the present general was apprenticed to the printing business. In 1836, when the war between the United States and Mexico broke out, he was one of the first to volunteer, having joined Col. Ward B. Burnett's 1st Regiment of New York Volunteers in Company A, of which he was soon elected Second Lieutenant.

The 1st New York Volunteers were assigned to the Brigade of Gen. James Shields. He participated in nearly all the engagements of the campaign under the late lamented Scott, from the siege of Vera Cruz to the storming of Chapultepec. In the action of Cerro Gordo he received a lance wound in the face, the mark of which he bears to this day. He was severely wounded in the night attack on Churubusco, so severely that mortification ensued and rendered amputation necessary.

He returned to New York in 1848. As a recognition of his service, Lieut. Sweeney received the commission of 2d Lieutenant in the 2d Regiment of U. S. Infantry, and was ordered to California. Subsequently he was sent to Fort Pierre in Northern Nebraska, where he acted as aid to Gen. Harney. Next we find him in New York, and while there receiving promotion to a Captaincy in his regiment. At the outbreak of the late Rebellion he was ordered to Newport barracks, and was entrusted with the command of the 2d Regiment of Illinois Volunteers, and after the capture of Fort Henry was placed in command of that position. He was again wounded in the battle of Pittsburgh Landing, receiving two bullets in his remaining arm, and another in his leg. On the 25th of September, 1862, the commission of full Brigadier General of Volunteers was issued to him, and he was also raised to the rank of Major in the Regular Army, receiving two brothers of Colonel and Lieutenant-Colonel. He was soon after placed in command of a division, and during the campaign under Grant, Thomas and Sherman, discharged the duties of acting Major-General in a manner that elicited very warm approval from his superiors in command.

At the close of the war he was brevetted Major-General of Volunteers for distinguished conduct in the field. Then came Fenianism. At the Philadelphia Congress he was elected to the position of Fenian leader here. Since it is to-day that Gen. Sweeney is regarded as the military leader of the movement.

WELL SUPPLIED.—We are pleased to learn that the supply of girls this season promises to be equal to the demand. Our information is derived from the following fragments of an epistle which comes from under the hand of a friend:

"Y. I. Don't know of a girl who has arrived with 800 hundred on board. I have got my wagon and am loaded with 11 passengers 3 girls. We expect to start in a day or two, and have a lot of girls now."

Somebody has obtained new opera glasses, and he is taking pictures better and faster than ever. He also keeps constantly on hand a full supply of pictures of potent places and places. Strangers visiting the city will do well to give him a call.
